Our Mission

The mission of the Heartland Coalition is to serve low-income residents with projects in the areas of career and community development, housing, healthcare, environmental protection and clean energy, disaster relief, education, and public art.

Our History

The Heartland Coalition began in 1997 as a volunteer effort to effect positive change in the Renewal Communities of San Diego County. The first project, Project Destination, focused on assisting high-risk youth learn construction skills through the process of rehabilitating run down properties. In the early years, Heartland partnered with the San Diego – Imperial Counties Labor Council, the San Diego Foundation, and Price Charities to train residents for construction jobs through the Joblinks component of Project Destination; which conducted 28 Joblinks classes resulting in hundreds of students being placed in jobs.

By July 2003 the Heartland Coalition was a volunteer organization with no paid staff: the 58 volunteers and 85 business and community partners had served 748 clients as of July 1, 2003. As of 2012, the Heartland Coalition has served more than 2,500 clients, has hired many employees, and has launched a successful housing rehabilitation program across the nation.

Heartland’s Commitment to Community Sustainability

Since 2007, Heartland’s UnitedGREEN division has implemented a series of sustainability symposia including ones at UCSD, the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, Qualcomm corporate campus, and San Diego State University. These events are now continuing with 1-day seminars throughout San Diego County covering water conservation, sustainable living, renewable energy, and creating green jobs and business. For Immediate Release

Regional nonprofit, Heartland Coalition, is recognized by the United States Department of Commerce’s Minority Business Development Agency.

Submitted By I.C. Jimenez,

Heartland Coalition received the prestigious “Service Firm of The Year” award in a luncheon ceremony at Etiwanda Gardens in Riverside, CA on October 25, 2012. The award, given by the Minority Business Development Agency, recognizes individuals and organizations that have demonstrated leadership and commitment in advancing minority business enterprises. The MBDA theme for this year is “Build it here-sell it everywhere.”

In accepting the award, Dr. Mark Hanson, President of the Board, Heartland Coalition, emphasized that “it takes the highest level of community collaboration and a team effort to create sustainable solutions.” Dan Sieu, President of SCCGP, who presented the award said Heartland Coalition was selected in recognition and gratitude for creating so many jobs in construction and manufacturing in Nevada, Arizona, and California. Mr. Sieu also commended Heartland for its work in economic development and especially for its work with incubator companies, both for-profit and non-profit.

Other recipients honored in various categories included Clem Ziroli Jr., President, First Mortgage Corporation, “Finance Champion of the Year”; Edward Shin, President, NongShim America, Inc. “Minority Manufacturer of the Year”, Michael R. Peevey, President, California Public Utilities Commission, “Distinguished Supplier Diversity Award.”

Additional awardees included Son Nguyen, Founder & President Veterans Associations of Real Estate Professionals, “Veterans Advocate of the Year and Beverly Kuykendall, President & CEO, Federal and Commercial Contracts, Inc. “MBDA Person of the Year.” The award for “Green Organization of the Year” went to Timothy P. White, Chancellor, University of California Riverside, who was recently named as the next Chancellor of the statewide University of California System.

The many dignitaries in attendance included David Honda, MC and Chairman of So Cal Corporate Growth Partners (SCCGP); Alicia Villarreal, Regional Representative, U.S. Secretary of Labor; Fred Latuperissa, Regional Director U.S. & Foreign Commercial Services, U.S. Department of Commerce; Congressman Joe Baca; and representatives from U.S. Small Business Administration and the Los Angeles Mayor’s Office.
